

Hamilton and Clydesdale R.S.C.D.S. Website

The aim of the website is to promote our activities as members of the R.S.C.D.S. community, throughout Scotland and internationally.

As a Local Association, Branch of the R.S.C.D.S., it is important that the website should reflect the aims and policies of the R.S.C.D.S. and is consistent with the national guidelines.

The website also needs to comply with copyright rules and internet protocols, and seeks to maintain a proper ethos that befits our organisation.

The Hamilton and Clydesdale website seeks to achieve these aims by

- Promoting the enjoyment of Scottish Country Dancing and music.
- Liaising with other R.S.C.D.S. groups and participating in their activities.
- Liaising with other dance groups to promote Scottish Country Dancing.
- Liaising with the R.S.C.D.S. teacher to provide programmes of dance.
- Liaising with the R.S.C.D.S. teacher to provide instructions for dance cribs.
- Informing members of events and activities.
- Informing the general public of events and activities.
- Encouraging new membership.
- Promoting links with other R.S.C.D.S. dance groups within Scotland and indeed worldwide.

The website tries to be open and accessible, easy to use and attractive in the range of features which it presents, such as crib pages, photos, videos, information links and activity links.
